DOWNTOWN BUSINESS – HEADS UP

Notes of discussion from yesterday's Rehoboth Beach Workshop included possible new rental property requirements, possible new noise regulations and continued discussion on bikes on the Boardwalk. At the end of the meeting, and as "ears" for the Chamber, it was Carol Everhart's impression that – RE: BIKES: The banning of bikes on the Boardwalk did not have strong support at this time, but the possibility of stronger enforcement to stop speeding bikers, or providing an earlier bike riding time frame might continue to be discussed. RE: NOISE: Any proposed noise ordinance would need additional input and discussion. RE: RENTALS: A number of suggested policies were discussed, with strong suggestion from the audience that the tenant, not the owner of the property, be held accountable for complaints/etc., and that perhaps the best way to accomplish this would be to have the leases clearly state the tenants' responsibilities and the results of non-compliance. RE: COMMERCIAL SNOW REMOVAL: Discussion continues as to best way to ensure that commercial streets are cleared of snow.
