

The Forgotten Mile Ale House, formerly the Captain's Table, opened in October 2015. The completely refurbished site features a fine selection of constantly rotating craft beers on draft as well as delicious and eclectic micro brews and craft beer in bottles and cans. We promise our food and beverage menus will always be interesting, enticing our customer's curiosity to visit regularly.

The cocktail menu features a modern twist on old classics, as well as newly imagined cocktail creations, and is accompanied by a thoughtful and well-rounded wine list. The menu focuses on scratch made, high quality, local products, intertwining our ale offerings with a modern twist on many classic dining items as well as new fare.
